

Utah State University

DigitalCommons@USU

Applications for Staff Employments Faculty,
Student and Graduate

William J. Kerr

1-1-1903

Mr. E. David Mann: A Utah Musical Student at Ann Arbor

unknown

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.usu.edu/kerr_applications

Recommended Citation

William Kerr papers, University Archive, 03p01s04d02Bx001

This Music, 1903 - 1904, 1906 is brought to you for free and open access by the William J. Kerr at DigitalCommons@USU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Applications for Staff Employments Faculty, Student and Graduate by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@USU. For more information, please contact rebecca.nelson@usu.edu.

MR. E. DAVID MANN,
A Utah Musical Student at Ann Arbor.

Mr. E. David Mann, of Bountiful, Utah, has just finished a course in music at the Ann Arbor Conservatory, where he has been an earnest student for years. Before leaving here he took considerable work under Madam Barron and then under Prof. Anton Pederson.

Mr. Mann finished his work in harmony several weeks before any other member of the class. He was chosen as one of a very few to appear in a grand faculty concert. This alone is a great honor, but it is not all. Immediately after his arrival at the university he was chosen a member of the great St. Thomas choir. He reaches home some time next week and many friends await his arrival to congratulate him on his progress.

It is not known as yet what he will do upon his return, but it is believed that he intends finishing his work in Germany.